Brian Young joins Schechter Wealth; Firm Continues to Grow

Birmingham, MI – March 24, 2015 / Schechter Wealth (http://www.schechterwealth.com) announces Brian D. Young, JD, CLTC, has joined the firm as Vice President, Senior Advisor, continuing their recent trend of adding highly experienced professionals to their growing team of wealth advisors. With over 20 years of relevant experience, Mr. Young will focus his practice on assisting physicians, business owners and other high net worth individuals with investment solutions, estate planning and advanced life insurance design.

Mr. Young began his career as a practicing attorney and, more recently, was a District Director of Northweastern Mutual Financial Network. In addition to his role as advisor, Mr. Young will utilize his leadership experience to ensure all Schechter advisors are consistently maintaining the highest standards of professionalism and integrity. He will also assist in identifying and recruiting other experienced advisors in to the firm.

"As an attorney, Brian brings a depth of experience that we find critical when advising clients on investment, insurance and tax planning needs," said Jason Zimmerman, Senior Managing Director. "We find that professionals with advanced degrees and varied experiences are a perfect fit for our firm and the high net worth clients that we serve."

Mr. Young commented, "Schechter has a solid reputation in our community. Joining this team will offer me the opportunity to bring a broader spectrum of solutions to my clients."

Mr. Young earned his B.A. in psychology at the University of Michigan. He possesses a J.D. from Wayne State Law School.
